Glossary of Terms:

Direct Representation - The customs representative acts in the name of and on behalf of another party. The party being represented is the declarant of the Freight/Goods and is obliged to meet all the obligations arising from the declaration.

Customs Procedure Code – The customs procedure codes (CPCs) identify the customs and/or excise regimes which goods are being entered into and removed from (where this applies). The CPC is completed at export as well as import.

Deferment Account – A duty deferment account lets the importer (or someone who represents them) make one payment a month to HMRC through Direct Debit instead of paying for individual consignments one at a time.

Free Circulation - When you import goods into the European Union you have to bring them into Free Circulation. Free Circulation means that the goods are cleared by Customs and you can sell them to, or use them in countries in the European Union. In the UK the term GB free circulation is being used for goods cleared by Customs for sale or use in Great Britain.

Postponed VAT Accounting – The postponed VAT accounting system aims to avoid the negative cash flow impact on businesses that are hit by additional VAT bill when importing goods and will avoid having goods held in customs until the VAT is paid. The way it works is very similar to the reverse charge mechanism used for EU trade prior to Brexit.

Licensed Goods – An Import/Export licence is an official document issued by a nation's government. It authorises particular goods and/or services to be imported or export into or out of its territory. An Import or Export licence might be required for your import or export business. Certain categories of imported or exported goods may require a UK or EU licenses to be able to ship them

Controlled Goods – Any goods that require any form additional customs provision may be considered “Controlled Goods”. This can include, import/export licences or export health certification or permits. Goods of this nature may also require physical examination at a border control point.

Further details of Controlled goods can be found here (see annex C)

As the Import or Exporter of your goods it is your legal responsibility to determine the nature of control/s on your freight as well as fulfilling all the required pre-requisite for the importation or exportation of your goods”

Goods are of EU or GB Preferential Origin – To benefit from preferential tariffs when importing into the UK from the EU (or importing into the EU from the UK), the importer will be required to declare they hold proof that the goods comply with the rules of origin. ... the importer's knowledge that the product is originating.

Incoterms - Incoterms, are a widely-used terms of sale, are a set of 11 internationally recognized rules which define the responsibilities of sellers and buyers. Incoterms specifies who is responsible for paying for and managing the shipment, insurance, documentation, customs clearance, and other logistical activities.

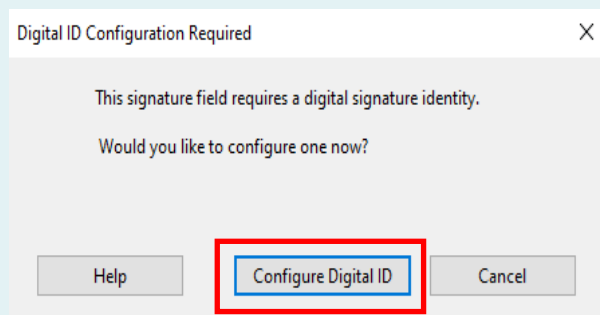

Commercial (Suppliers) Invoice – A commercial invoice is a document containing important information about the goods you intend to ship; they're also used to create a customs declaration. This is the most important document for HMRC/Schenker to ensure the Import Clearance is correctly processed. This document provides all of the information for this purpose.

HS Codes – HS Code stands for Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System.. ... The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System generally referred to as “Harmonized System” or simply “HS” is a multi-purpose international product nomenclature developed by the World Customs Organization (WCO). In essence internationally agreed ‘codes’ for individual items.
